COAT OF ARMS

During the Middle Ages, knights used a coat of arms to identify themselves. In a society where few people could read and write, pictures were very important. Traditional colors include: Black, Royal Purple, Emerald Green, Royal Blue or Sky Blue, Bright Red. Animals were frequently used as a main charge. They were not drawn to look three dimensional, but were shown as if they were flat.

The pictures represented the animal as a symbol: Lion, Bear, Boar, Eagle, Horse, Dragon, Griffin.

Procedures:

Students will create their own shield and family coat of arms including a motto that reflects the Code of Chivalry Values and an explanation on the back.

Crest: On the top of the helm. Stood on a two-colored wreath, a cap (like here) or a crown. Knights wore these when jousting.

Helm: Different forms of helmet show how important people are. This gold & silver one is for a nobleman.

Coat of Arms: The main heraldic design. Used by knights on their shields to identify them in battle.

Motto: A saying which a knight & his family live by. Often in Latin or French.

Mantling: Two-colored drapery worn by knights below the crest when jousting. Protects the neck from the sun.

Coronet: Only for noblemen. Most people weren't allowed them. Not shown here.

Supporters: Only given to very few important people. They hold up the shield. May be two the same or different.

Compartment: Supporters often stand on a grassy mound. Not shown here.
